

Obituary

Arnold Horton was born June 17, 1952 in Mount Clemens, Michigan to the late James and Eunice Horton. He was the eighth born of twelve children. Arnold loved watching his favorite television shows and listening to music. He was handy and enjoyed painting, as well as other home improvement projects. Arnold was educated in the Mount Clemens School District and graduated from Mount Clemens High School in 1969. He worked in the Maintenance Department at Sears and also in the scrap metal industry for many years until he was no longer able to do so for health reasons. Arnold endured nineteen long years on dialysis before being blessed to receive a kidney transplant. Enjoying the rest of his life free of dialysis outweighed any risk the transplant surgery may have held.

Arnold was strong-willed and could be stubborn at times, but he had a big heart and loved helping his family whenever he could. He enjoyed spending time with his family, his friends and his beloved dogs Cocoa and Cyia. He loved his fur babies!

He leaves to cherish his memory his daughter, Angela (Troy) Green; granddaughters, Chaniece and Briana; grandsons, Troy Green, II and Robert; three sisters, Delores Singleton, Shyrall Horton and Donna Horton; brother, James Horton; special friend, Rosa Jackson; and a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Arnold was preceded in death by his parents James and Eunice Horton; special aunt, Bernice (Leroy) Manuel; brothers, Robert, Dennis, Leonard, Raymond, Benjamin, and Thomas Horton; and sister, Eunice Anthony.
