

In Loving Memory

On June 23, 1994, Charlie McGowan III was born to Caroline Ford and the late Charlie McGowan Jr. He was known to us as Bubba as well as CJ. Bubba gained his wings on July 5, 2018 at the age of 24.

CJ was baptized on March 24, 2002 at Faith Temple Church of the Apostolic Faith in Detroit, MI. He attended schools in the Districts of Mt. Clemens, Detroit, as well as Clintondale. Bubba received his G.E.D June 25, 2012. CJ was very athletic and he played many sports but basketball was his life. He played basketball for multiple schools, leagues, and organizations as well as for fun. CJ was known to challenge someone to a game of hoops. He was also known to be very particular about his haircut and waves and he kept a brush in his hands. His sister said "a brush was his best friend" and his mom said "she often would call him when she couldn't find her brush.

Bubba leaves to cherish his memory his mother Caroline Ford, son Cyrie McGowan and sister LaKiska McGowan. He was preceded in death by his father Charlie McGowan Jr. He also leaves to cherish his memory his Goddaughter Nevaeh Woods-Jones; 5 aunts, 7 uncles and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

CJ was preceded in death by his grandparents Charlie Sr. and Jackie McGowan also Frank Jr. and Juanita Ford.
