
Obituary

Brenda Lee Swope-Wilson, was born February 1, 1950 in Mount Clemens, Michigan to the union of Preston and Ora Lee Swope.

She attended Mount Clemens High School and soon after she left for Job Corp. where she obtained her GED and learned the skills to become a Certified Nursing Assistant. For many years she worked as a Nursing Assistant caring for the sick at Martha T. Berry Medical Care Facility.

In 1972, Brenda was joined in Matrimony to Arthur "Ziggy" Wilson at North Broadway Church of Christ. She was later baptized at Zion Temple in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Brenda loved singing and dancing; she was a music connoisseur who could ballroom dance with style and grace. Brenda spent much of her time in the kitchen cooking, she could whip up a mean pot of chili. Brenda also enjoyed doing crossword puzzles and watching murder mysteries. Her most recent obsession was watching all 12 seasons of "Murder She Wrote".

Brenda loved her daughter, grandchildren and great grandchildren with all her heart and enjoyed simply being around them.

She leaves to cherish her memory a loving daughter Arlena (Lewis) Brownlee; two grandsons, Vincent and Joshua; great grandchildren Makai, Sienna, and Daisy-Lee; her brother Thomas Swope, of Mt. Clemens Michigan; two sisters Helaine (Floyd) Henderson of Atlanta, Georgia and Lisa (Davell) Marks of Milwaukie, Wisconsin; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

On Sunday, February 14, 2021 the Lord called Brenda to eternal rest. She was preceded in death by her husband Arthur "Ziggy" Wilson, her father Preston Swope, her mother Ora Lee Cole and her sister Jean Taylor.
