

IN LOVING MEMORY

William Fletcher Glasscox IV was welcomed into this world on May 11, 1974, as the beloved and eldest son of William and Trannie (Brown) Glasscox. He was born the first child of his father to carry on the Glasscox family name. He made his earthly transition on November 15, 2020 at the age of 46.

Affectionately known as "Pookie," "Chill," "Will," and "Chill Will," William was a long-time resident of Mount Clemens, Michigan. He attended and was a graduate of Clintondale High School. After graduation he went on to work at a variety of occupations before settling to become a self-employed carpenter. He took pride in his craft and enjoyed it. He was both meticulous and masterful with it. There is no better carpenter than he. He was an incomparable backyard mechanic, with the skills which were inherited from Granddaddy Grover. As a matter of fact, he was a "man of many trades." He was a lover of art, sketching, many types of music, and a good game of Scrabble. He enjoyed collecting many things: comic books, cars, and snakes to name a few. He was never your "average guy."

On September 5, 1994, Will met Cheryl Paschall. When their eyes met, he had found the Love of His Life, and she had found her True Love. They remained inseparable, best friends for 26 years. They were gifted with two sons, William V and Brandon. Will was a devoted companion and father.

Will enjoyed spending time with family and friends. We enjoyed his quick, witty remarks; endured his common sense advice; listened to him expound on his vast knowledge of many things; and enjoyed his subtle humor. His family adored him. He and his father were inseparable. He was a respectful son, grandson, and nephew; a loving brother, and a trusted friend.

As a result of his generous spirit, contagious personality, and whimsical wit, he was loved by many. He embraced people from many genres of life. He was never afraid to be a friend. He opened up his garage for many in need of shelter and extended his dinner table to those in need of food.

Will's life will forever be cherished by the love of his life, Cheryl; sons, William V and Brandon; parents, William and Trannie; siblings, Brianna (James) Davis and Jamin Glasscox; grandmother, Anne Brown; great aunt, Rosa Walker; special cousin, Oren Brown; and a great host of family and friends, all of whom were very dear to his heart. He will be sorely missed by his family, friends, and all who knew and loved him...forever in our hearts.

He was predeceased by paternal grandparents, Genevieve (Peltier) Martinez and Fletcher Glasscox; and maternal grandfather, Grover Brown Sr.
