

L. Ann Ferguson

L. Ann Ferguson was born in Steubenville, Ohio to Andrew and Josephine Hawkins. Her dad led her through the sinners' prayer and she accepted Jesus Christ at the age of twelve.

In 1949 she married William Amos Lawson, and they moved to Mt. Clemens in 1955. She later met and married Zellean Ferguson in 1971. She joined Greater Morning Star Church and faithfully served in many ministries, her passion was soul-winning under the leadership of Rev. Jessie Clayborn and Bishop J. Douglas Wiley-Taylor. She was also a member of Our Lord's House of Prayer Pastor Shore, Love Life Family Christian Church Pastor Kevin Lancaster. She currently was a member of Grace Christian Church Pastor Jerry and Pastor Joy Weinzierl. She worked at St. Joseph Hospital, Krogers and Christian Clemens School.

She was preceded in eternal life by her mother Josephine Hawkins and her father Andrew Hawkins, two brothers Andrew Hawkins Jr., Lewis Hawkins, one sister Annabelle Peterson.

She leaves to celebrate her life, two sisters Pearl Jarrett and Elizabeth Montgomery both of Steubenville, Ohio; three sister-in-laws Margaretta Nelson of Eastpointe MI, Eloise Ferguson of Los Angeles CA, and Anna Ferguson of Buffalo NY; extended family Jacqueline Juanita Fletcher, Ricarda (Alvin) Livingston and Anthony (Sharon) Ferguson all of Buffalo NY, Sharon (Dale) Dodson of Clinton Twp. MI, William (Talena) Lawson of Mt. Clemens MI, Cortney (Shana) Lawson of Eastpointe MI, Kay and Bob Ferguson of Clinton Twp. MI, William Caldwell of Mt. Clemens MI, Lawerence Burns of Pontiac MI and Arthur Burns of Orlando FL. She also leaves a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.