

Tracy Yvette Williamson Obituary

Tracy Yvette Williamson was born in Fayetteville, North Carolina on January 30th 1967 to Ada McMillan and Lenard Ross. Tracy graduated from Mount Clemens High School in 1985. Tracy was a loving, caring, energetic woman. Most importantly she loved the word of the lord. When you saw her, she was always smiling, laughing, joking no matter who you were. Tracy got saved and gave her life to the lord in the 2000's. Her mission from then on was to spread the love of God and to do his work. She wanted everyone to be saved especially her family. She fed the homeless voluntarily with her own money, gave rides, and babysat. She accumulated multiple church homes because her mission was to heal and support in any way she could. Tracy was a school bus driver on and off for 25 years. Her love for her children was unconditional. Evangelist Tracy Williamson became ordained to be an evangelist in 2018.

On May 19 2021 Tracy mission in life was completed. She had done what was needed to be done and the lord called her home so she can rest. She leaves behind to continue to spread the word of God and memories her parents Ada McMillan (Mount Clemens, MI), father Lenard Ross (Fayetteville,NC) Daughters Diamond Williamson (Detroit, MI), KayInn Williamson (Mount Clemens, MI), her brother Dennis McMillan (Mount Clemens,MI), June Ross (Fayetteville,NC), Jouse Charles (Cj), (Detroit,MI), grandchildren Dawn Taylor (Georgia), Alijah Brownlee ( Eastpointe, MI), Jajuan Tollivor (Detroit,MI), Diamond Williamson Junior AKA (Dj) (Detroit, MI), John Jennings (Detroit,MI). Her very best friend Valerie Patterson, Toni Johnson, and Sister Jackie Peters all in Mount Clemens. A host of Aunts, Uncles, Cousins, Nieces, Nephews and Friends. Tracy's loving family that preceded her in death is her son Decarlos Williamson, Cousins, Johnny, Jada, Jerrel Williamson, Linda McEacharn, Kyna Ferrel, Sister April McMillan, Step Father Dennis McMillan AKA (POPS), Grandparents John Williamson and Annie Mae Turner. She will be truly missed.