

Kevin Preston Pinkney was born 11/30/1987 in Brooklyn, New York to Tashone Pinkney and Gregory Horace. He grew up in Northwest Rochester, New York. Kevin was very energetic, loving and a happy child. He took joy in taking apart his toys and trying to figure out how to put them back together again.

As a child, Kevin loved watching the World Wrestling Federation and collecting wrestler action figures. He also enjoyed watching movies. Often Kevin could be seen watching, I'm Gon' Get You Sucka, on repeat; along with Friday and The Clumps.

Kevin attended Franklin High school and Job Corps, in Rochester, NY. Kevin was very charming and knew exactly what to say to make you laugh. He had a smile so bright it would light up the room. He utilized that one dimple to melt the hearts of many.

Kevin was a loving father and a hard worker. In order to provide the type of lifestyle he desired for his children, Kevin enrolled into a Welding program. Kevin was excited about starting his training in the Spring of 2019. Kevin enjoyed traveling which ultimately lead him to the state of Michigan in 2011.

In late 2018 Kevin answered the calling of the Lord and accepted Jesus as his Lord and savior. Kevin was baptized in October 2018 at New Life Ambassadors for Chris Christian Church.

Kevin transitioned to be with the lord on March 4, 2019. Kevin is survived by his (father) Gregory Horace – Rochester, NY, (daughters) Tahlya Tashone Pinkney – Rochester, NY, Amaya Rose Pinkney - Rochester, NY, Sabrina Rae Pinkney – Centerline, MI, Miracle Marie Smith -Inkster, MI, Ahmani Michelle Pinkney- Detroit, MI and Anastasia Tashone Pinkney -New Baltimore, MI, (son) Kamryn Zaire Pinkney (Centerline, MI), (sisters) Ashley Pinkney Mullins (Tequila Mullins)- Rochester, NY, Sharde Pinkney-Salters- Rochester, NY, Mikewanda Horace- Rochester, NY, (Grandmother) Ruby Brinson-Doman -St. Clair Shores, MI. and a host of aunts, uncles and cousins.

Kevin is proceeded in death by his (mother) Tashone Pinkney (Grandfathers) Robertis Pinkney & Kenneth Doman, (Great Aunt) Loretta Brinson, (Great Grandmother) Aldonia Brinson, (Great Grandfather) George Brinson (Cousin) Jamar Pinkney Jr.

Kevin is deeply loved and will be sorely missed by all.