Obituary

Sharon Kay Chapman was born in Detroit, Michigan on July 31, 1957 to Nathaniel Chapman and Rosa Lee (Hayes) Chapman. Kay departed this life at St. Anthony Nursing Home in Warren, Michigan on September 12, 2020.

Kay attended Pershing High School in Detroit, Michigan. She went to Highland Park Community College in Highland Park, Michigan for a while and studied Electronic Technology.

Kay loved reading, writing and listening to music for hours. She had a huge music collection that crossed all genres. Kay's favorite type of music was Jazz. Kay dabbled at playing the Saxophone for a short period of time. She was very smart and had a lot of "book knowledge." Studying Electronic Technology at Highland Park Community College came in handy for Kay. She utilized this skill to repair several televisions for her brother, James. She also prepared yearly taxes for family members.

Kay was preceded in death by her parents, Nathaniel and Rosa Lee Chapman, her brother and best friend, Charles Keith Chapman. She leaves to celebrate her memories; one brother, James (Pecola) Murrell of Clinton Township, Michigan; one sister, Verna Blackman of Columbus, Ohio, a "special and caring" niece, Latrece Murrell, a host of other nieces, nephews, and cousins.

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in the green pastures; he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of
