

AMO TAMBOURA GREEN

If you knew him, you loved him

A short story of a good man

(FOR THE MACOMB DAILY)

Amo Tamboura Green was born August 25, 1967, to the union of Mary Simpson Green Latimore and Joe Green in Mt. Clemens, Michigan.

Amo attended Mt. Clemens Public Schools and graduated from Clintondale High School; he attended Macomb Community College for two years. Amo's work history included employment at Waste Management, Ford Motor Company, and as a driving instructor. Amo's entrepreneurial ventures included a produce truck and his signature clothing line, AMO Wear.

Amo leaves his legacy to his wife Beverly Morrison-Green, his daughters, Maya, Miana, and Monee, his mother, Mary Latimore, his step-father George Latimore; his grandfather, Eddie Purdie; his siblings Mario Lamar Green, Andre (Dawn) Green, Marcus (Lentine) Green, Medina Kingsley, and his special sister Wendy Moore-Cowart; his nieces, Yahnica (James) Kirk, Chauntae Kingsley (Theodore Miller), Markisa Green; his nephews, Andre Green, Jr., Marcus Green, Jr., Mario Green, Jr., Chauncy Kingsley, II, Elijah Green, and David Maduro; and a host of aunts, uncles, great nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family, and friends.

Amo is preceded in death by his father, Joe Green, his grandmothers Marietta Purdie and Mary Harris, his grandfathers Chester Harris and Archie Simpson, and his brother Ved Green.

As we remember the life of Amo Green, let's celebrate life as he would.....with our whole heart.
